Dear Len:

Please accept my sincere thanks for arranging for my appearance at the National Press Club's newsmaker luncheon on September 18, 1985.

Judging by the number of guests, it was obviously a great achievement on your part and will be most helpful in getting our message about the Martin Luther King, Jr. Federal Holiday out to a very broad audience.

On behalf of the Federal Commission, I want to express our deep appreciation to you for all of your professional help and counsel. It has been most valuable.

Cordially,

Coretta Scott King
